INTERESTING ITEMS FROM EL VERANO AND VICINITY.

Weekly Record of all the Happenings in the Valley as Faithfully Recorded by Our Wide-Awake Reporter, "Archie McKiver."

Charley Wyatt was visiting relatives here Sunday from Petaluma.

Fred. Offerman, owner of a large cafe on East street, San Francisco, is registered at El Verano Villa.

Larry Larsen passed through town Monday on the water wagon, much to the delight of his many friends, who trust he may stay upon it.

Ben Noonan, the well-known cattleman of Santa Rosa, was in town Saturday shaking hands with his many friends here.

John Lounibos, Mrs. G. Lounibos and little niece were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Chauvet of Glen Ellen last Saturday.

W. McDonald, an army officer on one of the transports lying at the Vallejo navy yard, was a guest at El Verano Villa last Saturday and Sunday.

Louis Kearney, Emmet Mullen, Jake Steckmeyer and Nick Dowdall, all prominent residents of this place, witnessed the ball game at Boyes baseball park last Sunday.

Chief of Police Lowder, after spending several weeks in Sausalito, is back here. The chief is looking well and went over his beat the other day and pronounced everything "quiet along the Potomac." Mr. Lowder will do police duty here the coming summer.

John Basilou, chief chin-scraper of this town, boarded the train last Sunday at Sonoma for the metropolis, where he spent Sunday evening sight-seeing. He was accompanied on his pleasure jaunt by Leon Mouyer, and after separating himself from his loose change returned home Monday evening.

Billy Block represented Vineburg at the ball game Sunday. This Block a is certainly some ladies man and every time Archie sees him he has a new face with him. Whether Bill shakes the girls or they shake him is a mystery, but just take it from Archie, he is all right.

Joe Haden, Mayor of Verano, returned home last Saturday evening from the metropolis. During his absence he took in the Meehan-McAllister boxing bout in Oakland and also visited the International Exposition site in San Francisco. When interviewed by your reporter in regard to the fight Joe, who is a strong supporter of Meehan, explained there was nothing to it. It was all McAllister. Joe, as the slang goes, is a good loser.

After the ball game at Boyes Springs last Sunday a cart, a buggy and an automobile figured in a mix-up outside the grounds. The automobile was headed toward Sonoma and was blocked by the buggy when along came a cart and the driver got his rig tangled up with the buggy. All three became helpless in the tangle-up and could neither go ahead or back up while a howling crowd voiced its discontent at the blockade. After much excitement the automobile and rigs were untangled and fortunately without damage.

The El Verano Development Association is now negotiating the purchase of a town lot on which it is contemplated to build a town hall, which is much needed here. The association is in a flourishing way and is looking forward to the betterment of Sonoma Valley in general. An entertainment and dance will be given by the association next month.

Mrs. F. Kearney was here Sunday from San Francisco.

Otto Geisselman visited his folks in San Rafael last Saturday and Sunday.

Louis Bernzaft transacted business in San Francisco the latter part of last week.

James Baines, a well-known rancher of this place, transacted business in the Bay City the latter part of last week.

Miss Nettie McConche, popular teacher of our grammar school, spent Saturday and Sunday in the metropolis.

Coroner Blackburn of Petaluma motored over to Boyes last Sunday with a party of chicken town fans and took in the ball game at that place.

Wm. Chance and family have moved to the Lewis ranch, Mr. May having resigned as foreman and started a mushroom farm at Buena Vista.

Willie Johnson, a rising young society chap of South San Francisco, has accepted a position as head waiter at the French Cottage for the summer season.

Miss Ramona Granice of Sonoma passed through here Saturday morning en route to the metropolis for a week's visit with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Keogh.

One of the largest crowds that ever attended an entertainment and dance assembled at Boyes Springs last Saturday evening and enjoyed an evening of pleasure. Art Hickman was there with the latest jokes and he is some entertainer, too. The Seal baseball players were in evening dress and in addition to being baseball experts are some ladies' men, too. The Sonoma Valley girls think they are just too lovely for anything, and one can hardly blame them either for thinking so. Good dance music was one of the features and everybody present had a good time.

A runaway was the big excitement here Saturday. A horse driven by Henry Streeter, a dairyman in the western foothills, became unmanageable near Ryan's stables in this place. The driver was thrown from his seat to the ground and the vehicle, loaded with cans of cream, was completely wrecked. One of the heavy milk cans barely missed the driver's head when he struck the ground. After kicking himself from the wreckage the frantic animal started for his stable at break-neck speed leaving in his wake battered milk cans, remnants of harness and wagon spokes. One can of cream was recovered intact from the wreckage and brought to the depot by Tom Ryan. Mr. Streeter, the driver, escaped serious injury but was somewhat bruised up.

Howard Redmond was a guest at the Joe Dowdall residence last Sunday.

The second grand ball, given at Charley Miller's Villa last Saturday, was a grand success, a large crowd of Sonoma Valley party-going people attending.

The Grosscopf Bros. of Vineburg have been motoring this way quite often of late. Some attraction over this way. Easy Jim, get wise and look into the matter.

Sam Mannuck, after spending several months in the city, has returned here. Sam has been engaged in the egg selling business in San Francisco and pronounces business bad in that line.

H. P. Eaton of the real estate firm of Eaton & Toy, San Francisco, but now of Boyes Springs, and T. H. Baines, real estate agent of this place, and son Norman, motored to the metropolis Saturday morning.

John Basilou, our tonsorial artist, is bemoaning the loss of a week's wages on the Meehan-McAllister boxing bout at Oakland on the 21st inst., bet with Archie McKiver, which enriched the latter thirty-five simoleons, while the El Verano chin scraper is out just that amount.

Postmaster Mullen, sporting a sprig of shamrock, ever dear to the Irish heart, and carrying in his good right hand an exquisite imported blackthorn cane, was a striking specimen of Hibernian pomposity at the ball game Sunday. Being the eve of St. Patrick's Day, M. F. was feeling both joyful and patriotic.

The San Francisco Seals will cross bats with the Portland team, now training in Santa Rosa, on March 22d and 23d, on the Boyes Springs diamond. These are professional teams and a large crowd from all over the State will no doubt be in attendance. These two teams in action will certainly be worth seeing.

Frank A. Riser, formerly of this place but now of Oakland, was in town the latter part of last week. It seems as though Mr. Riser cannot keep away from this town. Though doing his level best before leaving to put it on the downward grade he comes back to see the town's street lighting system and other improvements and strange to relate he has not been missed.

A herd of cows must have slipped the eye of the new Sonoma Poundmaster last Friday, as they found their way to El Verano and for some reason or another immediately made direct for our pound and were locked up by Poundmaster C. F. Carmer, who has some kind of a coaxer around his corral, as all stock head for that vicinity when loose. These cattle were claimed by Sonoma people.

Among those who were at the baseball game last Sunday at Boyes from Sonoma Valley were Drs. Leix, Thomson and Parramore, who seemed to enjoy the game. Constable Louder of El Verano was conspicuous among the throng in his new summer outfit and cane and was there to see that things went all right. Joe Small was an interested spectator in the gallery and between times enjoyed a smoke out of his pipe. Having tobacco enough, Joe who is a fiend for baseball, didn't seem to care if the game went twenty innings. Jack Kelly had his coat off and saw that one and all had a bottle of the water that has made him and Boyes Springs famous. Ben F. Pinder came up in his large touring car from Sonoma and his guests were Chas. La Torres, Fitz Kiser and Last, but not least, lawyer Frank Sprague, who had his Easter bonnet on and was the swellest looking man in the audience.

One of the newest things in summer homes is that offered by the Sonoma Vista Land Co. This company lately took over the famous Nordwell ranch in this valley and has subdivided it into summer home sites. These are now being put upon the market and are selling with great rapidity, as each site is planted with full-bearing fruit trees—peaches, pears, cherries, plum and other fruits. The tract is located alongside the picturesque Sonoma creek and is connected with Boyes Hot Springs by an artistic bridge, which affords the residents of Sonoma Vista easy access to the varied attractions of this famous resort. Here is one of the finest open air swimming tanks in the state. The tract is already dotted with some very artistic little bungelows and plans have already been prepared and building will soon be started on several $1,500 residences. A station is also being contemplated by the Southern Pacific Co. It is now a flag station.

Geo. Diebold of Agua Caliente was in town Monday ordering a bill of lumber for a new house. When interviewed by your reporter in regard to entering into matrimony again, George said: "Ta-ta-ta h— with the womans—no more for me."

Last Friday afternoon the vicinity of Boyes Springs was thrown into wild excitement by a runaway starting in the baseball grounds. The horse and buggy, the property of Will Ashe of Glen Ellen, went at full speed toward that place, hitting several telephone poles and nearly running over one of the ball players. The buggy and harness were a complete wreck. The animal, which is a race horse, was brought near Glen Ellen. On passing Boyes Springs your reporter who was chatting with a group, heard Dr. Parramore remark that he had bet and lost on this same horse when he was on the race track, but he'd be darned if he went as fast on that occasion as he was going as he flew by the club house. Young Rochet of Sonoma followed the runaway on his motorcycle, but was unable to overtake it.

At noon time on St. Patrick's Day the long-wished-for rain, that means so much for our valley and the entire State, commenced falling. Owing to Ireland's national holiday happening in Holy Week this year, much of the jollification which usually marks the observance of the festival, was dispensed with, but the green immortal shamrock was noticeable on many an Irish bosom throughout the valley. The sending of postal cards with Irish verses and pictures of the beautiful scenery of old Ireland marked the occasion, but, let us thank God, the cruel and vulgar custom of insulting the Irish race by hideous cards associating that pure-blooded freedom-loving nationality with the clay pipe, the cocked hat the green pig, the snake and the whiskey bottle has disappeared, let us hope, forever. It was a cowardly and un-American practice and tickled the tastes only of the sewer rats of A. P. A. proclivities. The 6x10 green flag of the crownless harp, flying from a flag pole in our town this day, was an inspiring sight for many an Irish lad and lass. It made them rejoice at the thought of the dawning of freedom of their mother land and brought home to their memories in this far land the poet's well-known verse:

"Flag of our land! the scorned and banned,
And sunk in dust thou art;
The fadeless green is woven with life in Every Irish heart.
Our fathers' blood had nourished it—our
Mothers' tears had wet—
And with our love, 'twill float above a
Glorious nation yet!"

ARCHIBALD McKIVER.

GUIDI LIQUOR CASE APPEALED.

Defendant's Attorney Files Bill of Exception in the Superior Court of this County Last Tuesday

A bill of exceptions was filed Tuesday in the Superior Court of this county in the case of the People vs. Charles Guidi of Kenwood, convicted in Justice Atchinson's court, Santa Rosa, of selling liquor without a license in violation of the Anti-Saloon Ordinance and fined $150.

Thos. J. Butts, attorney for the defendant, will base his appeal entirely on the validity of the action of the court in accepting the conviction under the initiative ordinance and fining him under the county ordinance. It is claimed that the initiative ordinance repealed the county ordinance in its entirety, leaving the law without a penalty.

Two other cases of violation of the law for selling liquor were up in the Superior Court Tuesday. These were both under the old county ordinance and the Wylie local option law in Supervisor Green's district.

C. J. Curtis of Graton, charged with the sale of liquor in dry territory, had an information filed against him in open court by the District Attorney before Judge Seawell and the arraignment was set for March 24th.

The case of Hugh McConnell of Forestville, recently arrested on a similar charge, was given similar treatment. These two cases will probably be tried very shortly and will be the first to be heard under the Wylie local option law in this county.

The Welcome Rain

The rain which set in last Monday near the noon hour and continued almost without cessation until Tuesday morning was a most welcome visitor to our valley. It came just at a time when most needed and ensures a bounteous harvest in Sonoma Valley the coming season.

The Progressive Victory

Progressive publications throughout the state seem to have been singularly remiss in their failure to congratulate Progressive Congressman William Kent for his first victory in the House of Representatives—his signal defeat of the bill appropriating $2,000,000 for government participation in the Panama-Pacific International Exposition. It was only four weeks ago that they were running editorials and cartoons congratulating him on his opposition to the bill because it contained an objectionable "rider." His opposition from California furnished a convenient excuse for congressmen from other states, and their combined strength was enough to kill the original bill.

True to his pledges, Senator Root sought to aid our Exposition by securing a Senate appropriation; but this could only be done by attaching the Exposition appropriation to the sundry civil appropriation bill. The Senate did include in its bill an appropriation of $1,500,000. When this came back to the House the same "influence" that had occasioned the inclusion of the seven-commissioner "rider" in the original bill, reduced this sum to $500,000. And the final blow came when President Taft vetoed the sundry civil appropriation bill in toto.

Kent achieved a characteristic "progressive" triumph; because one shell seemed a bit defective he killed the goose that was laying California's golden eggs. He was the one congressman in the state delegation who objected to the passage of the original $2,000,000 appropriation. The seven-commissioner "rider" was not to California's liking; but our friends in Congress had discovered that it offered the one opportunity for securing a fitting appropriation from the Sixty-second Congress. Kent was fully advised that the rider would be cast off in the Senate. The Exposition directors begged him to withdraw his opposition, wiring him that everything was arranged, but he was too weak to be able to decline the opportunity to gain momentary notoriety as a "progressive" by opposing the bill.

A number of the "progressive" editors congratulated Kent in good faith They did not know, as he knew, that the objectionable rider was playing a necessary part; that it was the only form in which the bill could pass the House. It is useless for us to attempt to minimize our loss by not talking about not talking about it. Every foreign government knows that Congress has declined to appropriate money for participation in our Exposition. What can we expect from foreign governments when our own declines to take a part? This is the grim condition that confronts us. We must make a new beginning. Our Exposition directors must again rally to our assistance the support of the state and of the whole Western country in a determined endeavor to win from the Sixty-third Congress what the last one denied.

Our forces in Congress are decimated; our friends in the Taft administration have passed into private life. We go before a new administration, one that owes nothing to California. We carry the brand Progressive on our brow, and in Washington that is about as popular as the mark of Cain. One fact stands clearly mirrored by the clouds of opposition: We must have an adequate appropriation from our own government in order to secure representative participation from other countries, and we are going to get that appropriation from the Sixty-third Congress. The captains of industry who volunteered for service to secure government recognition must again volunteer to win government participation. New subscriptions must be called for. Delegations must again cross the continent to win from our government deserved participation. Men and money must be re-enlisted and the work must be done quickly, as the time for opening the Exposition gates is growing perilously close.

Faint hearts are already murmuring that we will go on and hold our Fair without government participation. That could be done on a minor scale; but there is a better way. We must form a flying wedge that will pierce the line of opposition and carry away by sheer force and courage that appropriation which goes with recognition just as the tail goes with the dog.

Two years ago government participation was taken as a matter of course, California's credit was good. Then came our wild saturnalia in "progressive" politics. Not content with "progressing" in our own state, we must reach out and revamp the national government. We succeeded only in "progressing" ourselves into a political nonentity. Now we must make a new beginning, and in order to build permanently we must not delude ourselves about the cause of the collapse of our last structure. Just as the cackling of geese saved Rome, the braying of an ass has well-nigh wrecked our Panama-Pacific Exposition.—S. F. Post.

VINEBURG NEWS ITEMS

"Easy Jim" Tells in an Interesting Way all About the Week's Happenings in and About His Section of the Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. John Murray visited in the metropolis Monday last.

Captain Peter Bosch transacted business in the bay city Friday and Saturday.

Fred Batto made his regular business trip to the Bay City on Monday.

Henry Hyde and family visited the old homestead several days this week.

Major Thomas Bowhill is evidently taking great pleasure out of his swell car.

Miss Emily Kearney of El Verano was a visitor to Vineburg on Monday last.

Mrs. August Figone and children of San Francisco are the guests of relatives here.

Mrs. John Sullivan of San Francisco was the guest of Vineburg friends on Sunday.

Quite a number of our society folks attended the dance at Boyes Springs on Saturday evening last.

Mrs. Lewis DeLew and three sons are the guests of her mother Mrs. J. H. Cotterell on the Hyde tract.

Mr and Mrs. Louis Rouquie of the Vineyard Villa attended the baseb ll game at Boyes Springs Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Tate entertained friends from San Francisco last week at their home on the Petaluma road.

Louis Rouquie is now engaged in painting the tank and house at Batto's Spur. Louis is quite an artist, believe me.

Every one was pleased to see it rain on Monday and all hope to get more, as the farmers and dairymen were getting very anxious.

Mrs Morris Levy of the Hotel Mervyn, Glen Ellen, was a visitor in this burg on Saturday last, the guest of her parents, Mr and Mrs. Captain Bosch.

Vineburg has heard from Harry Brandt and is glad Harry sailed from Seattle on March 12th for Honolulu. From there to the canal zone and thence "home sweet home."

Chas. Groskopf and Arthur Batto, two of Vineburg's baseball fans, witnessed the game between the Seals and San Rafaels. They were well pleased with the game.

Ex-City Trustee R. McDonell visited our local blacksmith, John Murray, on Tuesday. He was mounted on a handsome coal black steed that looked very imposing, but that mean Fannie Berndale said it was one of the horses of Henry Bates' morgue wagon. We don't believe it, Fannie.

John Douglas, the well-known vineyard and orchard man, was a visitor at Batto's spur on Sunday and he was accompanied by Chas. Richards, the painter. Both men are well-known here.

Enrico Forni of Pleasant Villa returned home Friday after a two-day's business trip to the metropolis and from the looks of things the villa will be in the swim the coming season.

There is some talk of starting a motorcycle club in Vineburg. Not a bad idea, taking into consideration the number of machines owned in this vicinity, but the question is will El Verano stand for it.

The following passengers boarded last Saturday morning's train from here for the Exposition City: Mrs. John Wadsworth, Mr. and Mrs. John Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kizer and Louis Klappereich.

Jos F. Groskopf, engineer of the Gundlach-Bundschu Wine Co., has purchased a handsome Indian motorcycle from the Mission Garage, and was floating around this burg on Sunday last. Say, Joe, we think it would look better with another seat, don't you?

Harry J. Kizer of Vineburg and L. Freeman of Sonoma will start on Thursday morning to chase the bass out of a slough that the Sonoma Land Co. intends to fill in. They will be assisted by three other game wardens. There is a large number of bass in the slough.

A fine Native Son arrived last Tuesday to cheer the hearts and brighten the home of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Bili, Jr. Mother and son are getting along nicely, while the happy father goes around singing, "It's nice to be the father of a bouncing baby boy." Welcome, Philip the third.

I have not heard from Viola Vineburg for some time past, but I can always depend on her. On my desk is a note as follows:

March 17th, 1913.

All Hail to St. Patrick
And all honor to his name;
For on the 17th of March
There comes the welcome rain.

Viola Vineburg

My brother reporter at El Verano, Archibald McKiver, is afraid that some one will kidnap my doll, Jessie Jessimine. No danger, but we would advise Archie to get some more fair assistants and not leave all the work on the hands of pretty Belle Brandon. I have fair and stately Viola Vineburg, bright Ethel Eastlake, Dainty Minnie Madden and pretty Jessie Jessimine and when they fail to furnish me with news I just go to H l n Hunt for it.

Miss Emily Kearney was a guest at the Murray residence at Vineburg Sunday and Monday.

Leo Baines, Chas. Danieli and Frank LaFranchi were at the baseball game Sunday, having a gallery seat.

Frank Sprague, Sonoma's popular attorney, went to Oakland Monday afternoon on official business.

Easy Jim, Vineburg's reporter, was here Monday helping to celebrate St. Patrick's Day. Did you get wet going home, Easy?

W. S. Tichner went to Oakland last Saturday to be on hand Sunday to take in the ball game between the Oaks and the Chicago White Sox.

Jim Berry, who left here several weeks ago, fought Sam Langford of Boston, in Australia last Saturday. The coon scored a knockout in the first round.

E. Franquelin left for Dunsmuir on Sunday morning's S. P. train, after spending several weeks here on his ranch. Mr. Franqulin is an S. P. engineer.

A marriage license was issued last Saturday at Santa Rosa to Patrick Brennan, aged 29, and Anna Buchanan, aged 25. They both gave their residence as El Verano.

Dal Emparan of San Francisco was up from that city last Sunday and attended the ball game at Boyes. Dal is an old time fan and was there to root for his home team.

M. Redmond is again dangerously ill at the Joe Dowdall residence. Mr. Redmond was out of danger, but last Saturday a change came for the worse. Mr. Redmond is one of the old timers of Sonoma Valley and has a number of friends who hope for the best.

A number of friends were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Will Wyatt from Petaluma Sunday. Among them were Wallace Adams and brother, Ray Wyatt and Floyd Potter. They were accompanied by lady friends and an enjoyable time was spent.

L. Mouyer celebrated his forty-sixth birthday last Monday, St. Patrick's Day. A reunion was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. Gale, in honor of the happy event, Sunday evening. An enjoyable evening was spent, all wishing Mr. Mouyer many returns of the day and hoping that he would live to enjoy many more of such happy events.

A large crowd from San Rafael journeyed to Boyes Springs Sunday by special train to witness the ball game between their home team and the Second Seals, also many Sonoma Valley people being in the audience. The game was a stubborn one and ten innings were played, the score being two to two, the game being called off on account of the San Rafael team having to catch the train. Over 800 ball lovers assembled on the grounds and it was an enthusiastic gathering. This was one of the most exciting games yet played on the new diamond. Geo. McNab of Sonoma was umpire and his decisions were correct. He was there for that purpose and allowed no bluffing.

Deputy Sheriff Joe Ryan made another clever capture here last Monday morning. A man giving the name of George Brooks, who blew into Sonoma Saturday evening, succeeded in passing a bad check for $18.60 on a lady of that town. When she went to the bank Monday morning the forgery was discovered. Officer Ryan immediately got on his trail and traced the man to this place, where he was captured north of the S. P. depot hiding behind some ties. He was taken to Sonoma and placed in the town jail to await trial. This is one of the many arrests that this well-known officer has made in this vicinity with in the last month.

GREAT BASEBALL GAME TUESDAY

White Socks of Chicago to try Conclusions With the San Francisco Seals at Boyes Springs

Local baseball fans—and who is not a baseball fan these days—are looking forward to a great game of baseball on the Boyes Springs baseball grounds Tuesday afternoon when the celebrated White Socks of Chicago will play ball with the Seals of San Francisco. So great is the interest being manifested in this game that an effort is being made by many prominent baseball fans in this city to have the High School and Grammar School Trustees declare a half-boliday on Tuesday to enable the school children to witness the great national game on the Boyes diamond between these two celebrated baseball teams.

Comparative Conservation

A gun club consisting of a score of wealthy San Franciscans holds the hunting privilege in the beautiful park known as the Tamalpais District and because they are moderate in the pleasures of the chase, call themselves conservative and are to be "let alone" in the face of that beneficent measure now before the Legislature, setting aside the entire region to a game refuge where the crack of the high power rifle and the baying of the deer hound shall no longer occur; where the present depletion of game shall cease, thus affording the added charm of wild life in a country perfectly adapted for the recreation and health of thousands of people.

Rai-Nuts vs. Glen Ellen Ball Game Postponed

The ball game announced to take place between the Rai-Nuts and Glen Ellen teams on March 23d, has been postponed on account of the inclemency of the weather to Sunday, March 30th, when an exciting game may be expected, as both teams are in fine form.

Another Improvement

Fredericksonof the Sonoma Valley Shoe Hospital has installed a new nailing machine with which he can nail the soles on two dozen shoes in one hour. This nailing machine makes the cost of soleing shoes 50 per cent cheaper than two years ago. If you bring your shoes and leather to him he will nail them on for ten cents a pair.

Personal Mention.

Mrs Theo Bates Nauman and children are here from the metroplis for a short visit at the home of Mrs. Amelia Bates.

Items Gleaned by our Live Awake Reporter the Past Week

G. O. Cobb was in Santa Rosa last Monday.

H. Trusty left on Monday morning's train for the metropolis.

Don't forget the big N. S. G. W. dance here on the evening of March 28th.

Frank White, the well-known carpenter of Kenwood, was a visitor here Sunday.

Rain began falling here at 11.52 a m. last Monday, much to the delight of our farmers.

No! no! No hing serious. Joe Trusty is suffering from a slight touch of the distemper. That's all.

J. Aspin, a prominent insurance man of Kenwood, passed through town in his new auto last Monday.

Everybody! all at once! all together! Remember Saturday night, March 29, 1913. Nuff said! Why?

Mrs A. B. Cheffers left on Sunday afternoon's train to visit friends in San Francisco and San Rafael.

Bert Howard returned Monday night from Sacramento. He will leave next Saturday for Oakland to play a week's engagement at the Orpheum in that city.

Be sure and have our local tailor, A. B. Cheffers, make your summer suit, it will catch the eye and the lady, too. Buy it elsewhere and it will never do.

Miss Grace Hardman, who is in the employ of the Pacific States Telephone Co. of the metropolis, is spending her vacation here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hardman.

Harry St. Clair, the popular manager of the State Home Poultry plant was in town Sunday brimfull of business. Harry has made this plant a complete success after the dismal failure of many others. We congratulate him on this success.

Rev. N. W. Pendleton gave an interesting lecture on Socialism at Mayflower Hall last Sunday, which was listened to with marked attention. Rev. Pendleton is a noted orator. A nice crowd turned out to hear him. He is the most convincing talker the writer has ever listened to Eleanor Glyn and her novel, "Three Weeks," hasn't got it on our Beau Brommel, Wm. Craib, who landed in our village twenty days ago. During this brief period he has captured a fair maiden, Miss F. Thierkoff, and both will fly the coop next Monday. Bill Craib is widely known a "Heidelberg Bill," all-around sport and versatile athlete. Bill made good with the Bachelors basket-ball team and will cavort around short for the local baseball team. We all congratulate the old boy.

Glen Ellen will open the baseball season on Sunday, March 29, on the local diamond with a game with the Rai-Nuts, the City League champions of 1912. Manager H. P. Trusty has gathered together during the past four months a team that he believes will be a strong contender with the Petaluma, Sebastopol and Santa Rosa nines. The line up for the initial game on the 29th inst. as a try out will be as follows: S. S., Craib; 2d, J. Trusty; 3d, Maher; 1st. Sobbe; C. F, Bradley; R. F., Worth; L. F., Harber; C., Breslauer; P., Greeley and Renner; extras, Griff and Pierce. The game will be an exciting one.

A Novel Law Suit.

A civil suit was commenced in Justice Atchinson's Court, Santa Rosa, last Monday, by Thos. Johnson of Glen Ellen against M. Gordenker, a near-by neighbor, to recover $240 for alleged damages suffered by the latter's bees attacking his fruit drying trays and destroying the fruit. The bees, it is claimed by Johnson, came in swarms from Gordenker's hives and wiped out the pears on his drying trays. John on admitted that there were wild bees among the swarms that attacked his trays as well as Gordenker's tame bees, but he insisted that the tame bees belonging to the latter, although they were untagged, had damaged him to the amount of $240. The case was submitted and taken under advisement by the court.

Socialist Meeting.

Herman I. Stern, President of the Board of school directors of Berkeley, will lecture under the auspices of Socialist Local Sonoma at the Don Theatre on Sunday afternoon, March 30th, at 2 o'clock sharp. Stern will take for his subject "The Capitalist Offsprings—Poverty, War, Intemperance, Prostitution." Everybody is invited and the admission will be free. J. Stitt Wilson recently said: "Herman I. Stern is, to my mind, one of the ablest speakers in the Socialist movement. He is a man of deep convictions and his convictions are made clear and forceful by research and study. As a speaker he commands by his personality as well as by the cogency of his argument and the power of his oratory. His piersing wit, humor and satire add pungency to the usual sober strain of his addresses. His earnest socialistic spirit, prolonged study of our movement and natural eloquence combine to make him a Socialist teacher of the first order. Many times he has occupied my San Francisco platfarm before large and critical audiences and they are always delighted on his return."

Notice to the Public.

Some modern machinery is coming to town in a few days. This time it is a first-class nailing machine and has long been needed to take the place of the old grandfather's iron shoe last. Makes more clean work on the insole. This machine has been necessary to install on account of the large increase of our business and it will save money for us all.

Machinery saves labor and we all know it in business.
